PUBLIC FORUMS TO DISCUSS STATE VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION PROGRAM IN YUMA

(PHOENIX, January 2, 2000) – The Department of Economic Security Rehabilitation Services Administration and the Governor's State Rehabilitation Council will hold a forum designed to provide input regarding the state Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) program. The Rehabilitation Services Administration (RSA) administers the VR program in Arizona which assists individuals with disabilities to become as economically independent as possible through meaningful and sustained work.

The Yuma Teleconference forum previously reported has been changed to the following address:

Yuma Teleconference Excel Group
2501 Arizona Avenue
Yuma, Arizona 85364
1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.
January 18, 2001

The Governor's State Rehabilitation Council (SRC) is a federally mandated council whose main function is to give consumers and interested public an avenue to provide input into the VR Program.

For more information concerning these events call Linda Lund-Wyatt at (602) 542-6291.
